From: Shirin

Thanks again for accepting to be part of our "Talk Shows". As I said yesterday this program hopes to generate engaging and lively dialogues. The main intention is to mix a very informal, social, entertaining night with informative, substantial discussions. Again, I am encouraging each key speaker to experiment and devise their own evening.

Storefront will be closed for three weeks in January for its office and basement renovation. Therefore our gallery space will be empty. There has been no funding assigned for this program, so unfortunately we will not be able to provide you with a fee. We will be charging the audience $10 to cover the food and other related costs of the program.

You are now scheduled for the date we have scheduled you is:
Pearson Post Industries: Friday, Jan. 20 at 7PM
Neil Denari: Tuesday, Jan. 24, at 7PM
Dennis Oppenheim: Thursday, Jan. 26, at 7PM

We will be preparing a poster, similar to our usual newsprint format. So I will be calling you soon to see if you have any specifics in minds. I can't stress enough the need for more female participants, since so we have no women involved in this group.

Sincerely,

Shirin
